HELMHOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATION
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.
For Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Weaknesses, Obstructions, Secret Discharges, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs.
Arising from Excesses and Imprudences in Life, and removing all Improper Discharges from the Bladder, Kidneys, or Sexual Organs, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE.
From whatever cause they may have originated, and NO MATTER HOW LONG STANDING, Giving Health and Vigor to the Frame, and Bloom to the Face.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!!!
It cures Nervous and Debilitated Sufferers, and removes all the Symptoms, among which will be found
To Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horrid Discharges, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude, loss of Appetite, often Enormous Appetite, with Desperate Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Face, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance, and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Head, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flaring before the eyes.

with temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, and Horror of Society. Nothing is more Desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread than fear for themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, FATIGUE, and EPILEPTIC FITS, in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION? The records of the INSANE ASYLUMS, and the melancholy deaths by CONSUMPTION, bear ample testimony to the truth of these assertions. In Insane Asylums, the most melancholy exhibition appears, yet—unattended is actually seen in the most respectable. Neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures we despair."
Low sullen sounds his gasping breath,
Debility is most terrible and has brought thousands upon thousands to untimely graves, thus blasting the ambition of many a noble youth. It can be cured by the use of this medicine.

INFALLIBLE REMEDY.
If you are suffering with any of the above distressing ailments, the Fluid Extract BUCHU will cure you. Try it, and be convinced of its efficacy. Beware of Quack Vendors and Quack Doctors, who falsely boast of abilities and references. Citizens know and avoid them, and save Long Suffering, Money, and Exposure, by sending or calling for a bottle of this Popular and SPECIFIC REMEDY. It always allures and inflammation, is perfectly pleasant in its taste and odor, but is unimpaired in its potency. Neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
Is prepared directly according to the Rules of PHARMACY AND CHEMISTRY, with the greatest accuracy, and chemical knowledge, and care devoted to its combination. See Professor Dewees' Valuable Works on the Practice of Medicine, and most of the late standard Works on Medicine. The mass of VOLUNTARY TESTIMONY in possession of the Proprietor vouching its virtues and curative powers is immense, embracing names well known to SCIENCE AND FAME.

"Personally appeared before me, an Alderman of the city of Philadelphia, H. T. HELMHOLD, Chemist, who, being duly sworn, does say, that his preparation contains no Narcotic, Mercury, or injurious Drug, but are purely vegetable."
H. T. HELMHOLD, Sole Manufacturer.
Sworn and subscribed before me, this 23d day of November, 1854.

Democratic Meeting in Greenup.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Greenup county, held at the court house in the town of Greenup, June 4, 1860, it being county court day, Jesse Corum was called to the chair, and B. F. Brown appointed secretary.

Henry M. Rust, then, in a few brief remarks, explained the object of the meeting to be the appointment of delegates to attend the convention in this Appellate Judicial District, at whatever time and place it may be held, to nominate a candidate for the office of the Appellate Judgeship, and moved that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

Whereupon the Chair appointed Henry M. Rust, B. J. McComas, Thomas Abrams, and George E. Roe, on said committee; who, after deliberating a short time, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Geo. E. Roe, B. F. McComas, Jesse Alexander, J. C. Korns, Lewis Nicholls, John Savage, M. L. Kins, John King, Robt. Johnson, H. M. Rust, Thomas Abrams, B. F. Brown, J. C. Adams, and the chairman, Jesse Corum, be appointed delegates to said Convention.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Greenup county, recommend Hon. E. C. Plister to the favorable consideration of the Convention, as one eminently qualified to fill that high position.

The Democracy of Greenup county, deeming this an appropriate occasion again to reassert the opinions heretofore expressed by them, when, on similar occasions, they have been assembled together; therefore

Resolved, That whilst we assert and reassert the declaration of principles contained in the Cincinnati platform, we hold that the doctrine therein contained of non-interference by Congress with slavery in the Territories, was never intended, nor indeed can it, consistently with the institutions of our country, be so construed as to concede to the Territories absolute sovereignty over that subject during their territorial condition, nor to deny to Congress the exercise of a power necessarily incident to all well-regulated governments—that of affording protection to the citizens in the enjoyment of every right guaranteed and defined by the fundamental law. Such a construction we deem to be in effect a subversion of the rights of the South and inconsistent with the first great principle of our system of government. But the right of the owner to his property in slaves being recognized and sanctioned by the Constitution of the United States, we maintain that Congress, acting under that Constitution, has the power to provide adequate legal remedies for the redress of the right in every Territory of the Union; and that it is the duty of Congress to exercise that power whenever it shall appear that the present laws on the subject are insufficient, and the Territorial Legislatures neglect or refuse to provide the same.

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to prohibit the introduction of African slaves into any of the Territories of the United States, nor to abolish African slavery therein; neither have the inhabitants of the Territories any such power during their territorial condition. But the right of the people to emigrate to the Territories, taking with them every species of property recognized as such by the laws of any of the States, and their right to adequate legal remedies for the protection of all such property as any of the citizens may see proper to take with them there, are rights plainly defined by the Constitution itself, and should not be destroyed, impaired, or abridged by the action of any legislative body.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Territorial Legislatures to extend to the inhabitants of the Territories all the means and all the remedies necessary for the enforcement of these rights, as well as of every other right guaranteed unto them by the Federal Constitution; and if they fail or refuse to do so, it becomes the duty of Congress, acting under that Constitution, to provide the same.

Resolved, That by these principles we will stand or fall, believing that upon their maintenance depends the perpetuity of the Union and the prosperity of our country; nor can we depart from them without the forfeiture of our honor and a surrender of our rights.

B. J. McComas then moved the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That should there be no delegate in said Convention from Greenup county, the Mason county delegation are hereby authorized to cast the vote of Greenup.

3. That we be content with the restoration of harmony and unity of action in the Democratic party, upon a sound national basis of principles, as the only remaining hope for the preservation of our glorious Union, and the maintenance of the constitutional right of every section of the Confederacy.

1. Resolved, That this meeting approve of a Convention, to be held at Richmond on the 14th inst., for the purpose of nominating a suitable person for candidate for the office of the Court of Appeals in this Appellate District.

3. That the delegates for Harlan county be and they are instructed to cast the vote of said county for B. J. Peters, but that we will go for the nominee of that Convention.

4. That any one of the above-named delegates who may attend said Convention be authorized to cast the vote of said county.

5. That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Mountain Democrat.

Hon. Wm. Patterson.—This distinguished citizen of Kentucky, and our present Minister to the Spanish Government, was in our town on Tuesday and Wednesday last. He was the guest of Hon. R. Apperson. Mr. P. is a proud representative of the liberal minded and accomplished Kentucky gentleman, and does honor to America at Court to which he is accredited.—Mt. Democrat.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—HOUSE.—Mr. John Cochrane, from the committee on Commerce, reported a bill to change the name of the ship Rockhall to Massachusetts. He said the State of Massachusetts had purchased the vessel for the nautical branch of the Reform School.

The Senate bill changing the location of the Custom-House from Point Isabel to Brownsville.

Both passed.

Mr. Delano presented the resolutions of the Massachusetts legislature, instructing the Senators and requesting the Representatives from that State to use their efforts to secure the enactment of more stringent quarantine laws to prevent the importation of diseased cattle. Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

A bill was passed authorizing the reissue of land warrants in cases where the originals have been lost or destroyed. The Secretary of the Interior to frame such rules as will guard against fraud.

The House acceded to the request of the Senate for another committee of Conference on the Homestead Bill.

The Pacific Telegraph bill was taken up.

Mr. Russell moved to concur in the Senate's amendment restoring the names of Zenas, Burnum, and others, and authorizing a contract to be made with them.

Mr. Burnett opposed the bill.

Mr. Scott said that Mr. Burnett's hostility was unparalleled and unprecedented, the latter having ordered his electronic battery against it ever since it was introduced.

Mr. Burnett wanted to throw the establishment of a line open to competition.

Mr. Coffey—In that event you would merely get straw bundles. He briefly showed that there was no monopoly.

Mr. Burnett moved to table the bill—negative 70 to 120.

The House refused to concur in the Senate's amendment—83 to 104.

The House receded from an amendment to the Senate bill providing for the return of the captured Africans, and concurred in the Senate's amendment to the Light-house bill.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Senate's amendment to the Civil Appropriation bill.

Recess from half-past four till seven o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The House reassembled at seven o'clock, and resumed the consideration of the appropriation of $500,000 for the Washington Aqueduct, which was not concurred in, as was also that of $250,000 for a new jail.

Mr. Irvine, of New York, from the special committee to investigate the store contracts in the city of New York, reported from the majority of the committee, approving of the change made by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. Barr presented a minority report, reflecting in a proper degree on the conduct of the Secretary, implying a want of good faith in contract, and recommending the rescinding of contracts.

On motion of Mr. Irvine, the matter was postponed till the next session.

SENATE.—Mr. Mason, from the special committee on the Harper's Ferry matter, made a report at length; but it embodies nothing new.

Mr. Doollittle made a minority report; but it was not read.

The committee was discharged from any further consideration on the subject.

Mr. Mason, from the same committee, asked to be discharged from the consideration of the bills relating to the invasion, and states the memorials for the release of Mr. Hyatt.

He also made a speech on the petition from the negroes of Massachusetts, praying for the release of Mr. Hyatt, and asked that, as they tampered with the Senate, they be returned to the memorialists. Laid over.

Mr. Dooll made a minority report, saying that the right of petition could not be denied any one.

Mr. Mason, from the same committee, made a report discharging Mr. Hyatt.

The resolution of Mr. Hyatt's discharge was agreed to.

Mr. Hamlin presented a remonstrance from New York in regard to the Pilot laws.

Mr. Green introduced a resolution for printing 25,000 extra copies of the reports on the Harper's Ferry invasion, which was referred to the committee on Printing.

Mr. Bayard moved to take up the bill to give the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and House power to appoint deputies in the different States.

Mr. Bayard called for the yeas and nays on the motion to take it up. Disagreed to—yeas 22; nays 25.

Mr. Fitch moved to take up the House Joint Resolution relative to the public printing, and make it the special order for to-morrow at half past eleven o'clock. Agreed to.

The Army Bill was received from the House with sundry amendments.

The Light-house Appropriation Bill was taken up and passed.

The tariff bill was taken up.

Mr. Hunter argued that no change of the tariff was necessary. The present tariff would afford sufficient revenue for an economical support of the Government, and for the extinguishment of the public debt. The revenue, under the present tariff, would go on increasing. There would be $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 surplus next July.

He further contended that the iron interest was depressed by the fluctuations in the credit of the country and the revolution of 1857.

The tariff of 1857 furnished sufficient protection to Iowa. He believed it enabled the public to weather as well as it did the financial crisis of that year, but if a change in the tariff was made, it would be a disaster to Iowa.

The executive charges contained in it would deter importation and reduce the revenue; besides, it was so complicated in its machinery it would require an army of officials to execute it, and it would open the door to fraud more than any system ever devised. For these reasons he desired its permanent repeal.

Canon also spoke in favor of an increase of the tariff.

After recess a vote showed no quorum present, but one was obtained after a while, when the bill by a vote of 20 to 23, was postponed till the next session.

The Army bill was then taken up, and some of the House amendments concurred in, and a Committee of Conference appointed on the disagreeing votes.

Mr. Pearce reported from the Committee of Conference on the disagreeing amendments to the Overland Telegraph Bill, and the Senate receded from its amendments, which put in the conference the House bill to the House amendments, which allows the Postmaster-General to advertise for proposals to build the line. The bill has now passed both branches.

Mr. Slidell offered a resolution for the appointment of a select committee of three to report a system to increase the revenue, on the basis of the House bill just passed, and report at the next session. Laid over.

Several private local bills were passed, when the Senate found it self without a quorum, and adjourned at ten P. M.

SENATE.—Mr. Hale introduced a bill to prevent unlawful detentions.

Mr. Wilson introduced a resolution to establish the quarantine laws, and to prevent the importation of diseased cattle into any of the States.

Mr. Sumner moved to take up the House bill to raise the mission to Sardinia.

It was taken up and passed.

The resolution in regard to public printing was taken up.

Mr. Davis offered an amendment to the minority report, which provides that the privilege be done by contract, and also limits the amount of printing to be done. After discussion the amendments was disagreed to—yeas 18, nays 29.

The question was then taken on Mr. Gurley's bill, providing for a government printing office, which was agreed to—yeas 30, nays 14.

The naval appropriation bill was considered, and a large number of amendments added.

Mr. Wilson offered an amendment to use part of the appropriation for the purchase of three steamers to act in the suppression of the slave trade on the coast of Africa.

Mr. Gwin offered as a substitute, that the President be authorized to make the British government to enter into a convention to make provisions for the return of each captured African, as long as the 8th article of the Ashburton treaty remains in force, and if the British government refuses to enter into such a convention, then the President shall signify to the British government that that treaty is abrogated. He said the British government did not send back the Africans, but kept them and made them useful.

Mr. Wilson said the slave trade was increasing. It was a fact that vessels were fitted out at New York and left that port with the knowledge of the United States officers, who thought it would be for the same. He thought it his duty to try and put a stop to it.

Mr. Green thought the government had no right to put a police force on the coast of Africa; it had no right to interfere with the slave trade between Africa and Cuba, but only to prevent the importation of slaves, which would be well call on the British Government to end the treaty.

Mr. Hamphill opposed the amendment of the Senator from California. He thought there was no information here that the British Government made slaves of the captured Africans.

Mr. Green said the British government wished to have that treaty abrogated. He said the British government did not send back the Africans, but kept them and made them useful.

Mr. Stratton made the opening speech in favor of the committee's report. Mr. Chrisman, contestant, and Mr. Anderson, severally addressed the House in support of their respective positions.

Mr. Stratton gave notice that he would demand a vote on Monday at 10 o'clock.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the state of the Union.

Mr. Loomis made a speech against the President's protest. The House then, at 4 P. M., took a recess till 7 o'clock, P. M.

At 7 o'clock, P. M., the House reassembled. The Senate's amendment was adopted, providing that all extra documents ordered by the House, not already executed, shall be printed by the House Printer, but nothing shall be allowed for composing when the same document has been first ordered to be printed by the Senate.

Mr. Sherman said this was to facilitate the printing of the 200,000 copies of the agricultural report ordered by the House.

Mr. Phelps and Mr. Pendleton, severally, said that the Senate Printer under the law was entitled to the job.

Mr. Mynard remarked that it was nothing more than to give printing plunder, belonging to the Senate, to the House Printer, and that the former would have just claims for damages against the government. It was said by several gentlemen that the Senate Printer can print the copies wanted in thirty days, and that he is only waiting for the order to print them, having the stereotype plates ready.
